SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

I. Eligibility:

- A. Recipients must be enrolled at Lakeland Community College in a degree or certificate program.
- B. Applicants are selected on the basis of the criteria as set forth by the donors.

II. Application Requirements:

- A. Complete the scholarship application. Only one application needs to be completed for consideration for all scholarships but you should discuss in your essay any pertinent qualifications you have regarding specific scholarships
- B. Submit a 250-word typewritten personal statement addressing the following areas:
 - Your reasons for wanting to attend Lakeland;
 - Your career or job aspirations or goals;
 - How your future career aspirations or goals contribute to the betterment of the community or society
 - Your participation in volunteer or service projects in the community;
 - Your unusual expenses or circumstances;
 - Discuss your need for a scholarship.
 - Elaborate on criteria as related to specific scholarships
- C. Although completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is not required for all scholarships, most donors do require the FAFSA to be processed. In order to be considered for all possible scholarships available, complete the FAFSA and submit it to the federal processor 4-6 weeks prior to the scholarship deadline listed below. You may apply online at www.fafsa.ed.gov.

III. How to Submit An Application:
